- Products which are outside of the PJ/TJ/RJ/TD series of Brother products;

Brother reserves the right to withdraw Brother Extended CORE Warranty in the following circumstances:

- Where repairs to the Product have been performed by persons not authorised by Brother to carry out such repairs or the Product has been tampered with, altered or modified, except by Brother authorised service personnel (including the installation of any unauthorised software);

Although you are not required to use Brother original supplies (media and/or ribbons), if the use of non-Brother supplies (media and/or ribbons) is found to have caused damage to the Product (including but not limited to fault/damage/malfunction of print heads) for which a claim is made, any claim for service under these terms may be rejected at the discretion of Brother;
- Where Brother reasonably believes that you are in breach of the terms and conditions of Brother Extended CORE Warranty;
- Where the Product has been subjected to unusual physical or electrical stress, abuse or forces or exposure beyond normal use within the specific operational and environmental parameters set forth in the applicable Product specification;

In the event of the occurrence of any of the exclusions listed above, Brother shall notify you that the claim for Brother Extended CORE Warranty service is not covered by Brother Extended CORE Warranty and you may opt to direct Brother to repair such defect at Brother’s applicable rates for repair plus applicable sales taxes.

Repairs or replacements provided under Brother Extended CORE Warranty neither extend the standard warranty or Brother Extended CORE Warranty period nor commence a new Brother Extended CORE Warranty period for the Product. The warranty period for any spare parts, print heads and platen rollers provided under the Brother Extended CORE Warranty ends with the expiry of the standard warranty period of the Product.

Where services are unreasonably or dishonestly requested by you, whether during the Brother Extended CORE Warranty term or otherwise, Brother reserves the right to charge you an appropriate amount for the repair of the Products. Any charges or sums payable by you shall be exclusive of any sales taxes which shall be additionally payable by you.

Repair, spare parts and replacements

When you request Brother Extended CORE Warranty services for your Product, Brother will determine whether rectification of defects will take the form of a repair or replacement of the Product. Where Products need to be returned to Brother, we will issue instructions for return which you must follow. You will bear the cost of such returns.

Brother reserves the right to request evidence of purchase of the Product prior to issuing replacements or carrying out repairs.

Where necessary we will use all reasonable endeavours to supply spare parts and replacement components required to repair the Product. Replacement Products or spare parts provided under Brother Extended CORE Warranty may be new or refurbished items equivalent in performance.

Upon receipt of a valid Brother Extended CORE Warranty claim and return of the faulty Product, Brother commits to either repair the Product or issue a replacement Product as soon as is reasonably practicable. You must return your faulty Product to Brother at your expense and any failure to do so will invalidate your Brother Extended CORE Warranty. No replacement Products will be issued unless and until any faulty Products are returned in accordance with Brother's instructions.

Brother shall issue repaired or replacement Products to you at its own expense. Brother shall not be liable for any delays or failures of its third party delivery and courier services.
